3	Clause no.2.6.2 Note no.3	14	Similar works means “providing manpower supply with or without/Fire Tenders/Extinguishers for attending Fire Fighting and rescue operations.	Oil Spill response equipment shall require regular mock drills, services & necessary spares and even though person has got IMO level1 or IMO level 2 training from Indian Coast Guard or recognised institute but as per our experience such trainings are only theories. As a matter of fact person must have actually operated maintained and services such as equipment for at least for 2 to 3 years than only can manage, operate & service these equipment.	In house training will be provided for oil spill response.
4	Clause no.2.6.2 Note no.3	14	Similar works means “providing manpower supply with or without/Fire Tenders/Extinguishers for attending Fire Fighting and rescue operations.	For your information as per our knowledge non of the 'A' Or 'B' category of port has a common team for responding Oil spill & Fire fighting. Since both are separate and & work.. We strongly feel that both the work needs vast field experience . But by clubbing both the aspects in one seems mismatch and may nor achieve desired result.	Clarified Reply at Sr. No.1,2,3
